

HOW TO TEACH LITERACY LIKE A DREAM

with Susan V. Bosak

A POPULAR WORKSHOP!

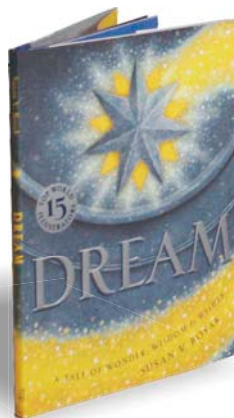

FREEBIES! Participants each receive an 8-page classroom Activity Kit filled with ideas. There's also the option of a sparkling LED "I'm a DREAMer" pin for each "graduate" of the workshop.

DIFFERENT LENGTHS: You can have a one-hour, afterschool motivational workshop. The workshop is also available in 2 hour, half day, and full day versions for educators in the elementary to middle/junior high school grades.

MEET Susan V. Bosak. Susan is an educator and an author (Science Is..., A Little Something). She's a popular speaker who travels coast-to-coast doing school visits with students and professional development with teachers. She serves as National Chair of the Legacy Project.

FOR MORE about Dream and the Legacy Project, visit www.legacyproject.org.

TO SCHEDULE a How to Teach Literacy Like a Dream workshop, e-mail Brian Puppa at BrianPuppa@legacyproject.org or call (905) 640-8914.

Encourage students to set and achieve life goals, and improve text and visual literacy skills.

The Legacy Project, a national education project, offers a cross-curricular workshop for teachers, counselors, media specialists, and administrators.

Using her award-winning picture book Dream: A Tale of Wonder, Wisdom & Wishes, bestselling author and educator Susan V. Bosak leads an interactive, energetic, idea-filled session.

Dream has won 11 national awards, among them an International Reading Association Children's Choice and a Teachers' Choice. Fifteen top illustrators – including two-time Caldecott Medal winners Leo and Diane Dillon, Raúl Colón, and Shaun Tan – have each created a gorgeously illustrated page to complement a multilayered, poetic story about life's hopes and dreams from childhood to adulthood. The book can be used to inspire both students and teachers. Says The Bloomsbury Review, "Richly crafted and thoughtfully written, Dream is a dazzling project."

You'll experience a multimedia reading of the story. Then Susan will share classroom-tested lesson ideas for helping students from elementary to middle school grades build an understanding of meanings found in words and pictures (lesson ideas support the Standards for the English Language Arts), of themselves, and of the world. Get ideas for written text and visual literacy, and skill building – meaning, interpretation, inference, cross-curricular connections, and more. And learn how to make an origami Dream Star with your personal teaching goal tucked inside!

Presented by the Legacy Project

Legacy